

NICOLE TORI, soprano

Soprano Nicole Tori (the Mother) is an accomplished singer of opera, oratorio and musical theater. Her credits include Musetta in La Bohème (New York Opera Forum), Oscar in Un Ballo in Maschera (NYOF), Despina in Così fan Tutte (Mannes), Najade in Ariadne auf Naxos (Dell'Arte Opera Ensemble), and Mother Abbess in The Sound of Music (Millbrook Playhouse). International credits include L'Elisir d'Amore (Urbania, Italy), and the Asian tour of The Sound of Music. Nicole performed as a finalist in the Classical Productions Vocal Competition at Weill Recital Hall (Carnegie Hall) and studied voice performance/opera at Wheaton College (IL) and New England Conservatory of Music.